

Scenes and Events in the News of the Day

PROMINENT FIGURES SNAPPED AT RACES AND BREAKFAST OF RADNOR HUNT CLUB TODAY

MRS. HARRY THAYER IN A NEW CHECKED SUIT

USING CLUBHOUSE STEPS AS GRANDSTAND

From left to right, in front row—Mrs. Harry L. Collins, of Pittsburgh, whose hand is bandaged on account of a recent horseback injury; Miss Frances V. Lloyd and Mrs. J. Stanley Reeve.

SOMETHING FUNNY AT THE RACES
Miss Ethel Maule (with wide hat) and Miss Ethel Townsend.

FRANCIS V. LLOYD ON "SHERRY"

CORNELL'S STUDENT BAND MARCHING ON FRANKLIN FIELD
Before the contest started today, the Ithaca musicians paraded around the field to the accompaniment of cheers from all sides. They made a splendid appearance.

PRETTY GIRLS WHO CHEERED FOR RED AND BLUE

More feminine fans turned out for the Cornell contest today than at any previous game this season. The warm day brought them out by thousands in the season's gayest colors.

BOY SCOUTS AS FOOTBALL USHERS

Three hundred Scouts aided the Penn management today in seating the crowds. They also took up a collection through the stands for the American Red Cross.